The programme Cosmoscw Kids by MMOMA Kids (4+) welcomes kids to become co-creators of large-scale abstract sculpture. For three days, the kids' area of the Fair will live its own life: changing colors and textures, freeze and move, increase and decrease, expand or contract. The unpredictability of the process and the contribution of each participant will be recorded with a camera. This programme is the basis for the unique MMOMA KIDS TEEN FAMILY course at the Museum's Education Center.
