Cosmoscow announces artists and exhibitors for the 5th edition of Russia's only international contemporary art fair

The record number of participants and artists and the launch of new displays

The 5th-anniversary edition of Cosmoscw, Russia's only international contemporary art fair, will take place in the historic market building, Gostiny Dvor, on 8-10 September 2017 supported by strategic partner Credit Suisse, jewelery partner Messika, automotive partner Bentley and official partner Beluga Transatlantic.

Cosmoscw welcomes a record number of galleries and artists introducing 54 galleries from European countries including Belgium, Estonia, France, Germany, Georgia, Italy, Norway, Poland, Russia, Switzerland, the United Kingdom, and the United States of America that will exhibit works by more than 150 artists.

The 2017 edition will launch a number of new initiatives to tie into the fair's long-term development goals. Innovations to the Fair include new sections such as Collaborations, Focus and Past Present and a special Cosmoscw Stand Prize will be awarded offering free participation in Cosmoscw 2018. The winner will be selected by the jury, consisting of representatives of both Russian and international art institutions, including Irina Gorlova (State Tretyakov Gallery), Alisa Prudnikova (National Center for contemporary Art), Ekaterina Kibovskaya (Moscow International Biennale for Young Art), Alexey Novoselov (Moscow Museum of Modern Art). The jury will base their choice primarily on the strength of their curatorial approach.

Credit Suisse is Cosmoscw's Strategic Partner for the third consecutive year. Through this partnership Credit Suisse contributes to the development of a contemporary art market and helps advance the fair's cause of making emerging Russian artists more visible locally and internationally.

Collaborations Section

This year inaugural Collaborations section will highlight Cosmoscw's key programming strand that invites international and Russian galleries to share booths and create a joint display.

Raster Gallery (Warsaw, Poland) is among the pioneers and leaders of the Central European contemporary art market, and one of the most recognizable galleries from Poland will display works by Slavs and Tatars, Rafał Bujnowski, Karolina Jabłońska, and Janek Simon. Temnikova & Kasela Gallery emerged out of necessity to provide professional representation for established and emerging artists from the region and to intensify their international visibility will show works by Kaido Ole и Merike Estna. Sandy Brown Gallery from Berlin will showcase works by Alex Vivian and Dena Yago. Boccanera Gallery from Trento will represent works by Linda Carrara and Nebojsa Despotovic at Cosmoscw. From the political-capital of Oslo to the oil-capital of Stavanger and from old-capital of Trondheim to the Barents capital of Kirkenes, these gallery-hybrids use the model of non-profit artist-run spaces. Together they represent a cross-section of Norwegian contemporary art and highlight the Scandinavian model of supporting and developing the arts. Participation of the Norwegian galleries and artists at Cosmoscw 2017 is supported by OCA (Office of Contemporary Art Norway), Pikene på Broen, the Foundation of Vladimir Smirnov and Konstantine Sorokin.

Malin Bülow's work will be created during a residency in Moscow, August 18-26th, in cooperation with the Foundation of Vladimir Smirnov and Konstantine Sorokin and exhibited within Cosmoscw 2017.

This year's Main Section is highlighted by galleries that have exhibited at the fair since its first edition. The Roza Azora Gallery (Moscow) will introduce collectors to new work by Ariadne Arendt and Ivan Yazykov. New work by Eugenia Nozhkina will also be presented by 25Kadr gallery (Moscow) along with works by Evgeny Medvedev-MA, who tragically passed away last autumn at the age of 40.

Past Present Section

New to Cosmoscw 5-th anniversary edition will be Past Present – a special section of the fair devoted to the previous stages of Russian contemporary art development. The exhibition includes works of recognized classics of Russian contemporary art that were relevant in the past and have not lost their artistic value at the present time. The main purpose of the Past Present Section is to expand the range of the fair, to try to place the art of the moment in a meaningful cultural and historical context on the one hand, and to introduce the works of the recognized authors to the audience, carrying out an educational task. Participating galleries include XL Gallery, VP Studio, Pop/off/art Gallery, ART4, Marina Gisich Gallery, and 11.12 Gallery from Russia.

Artsy

Cosmoscw and Artsy, the leading online resource for learning about and collecting art, will collaborate for the fourth time in the lead up to the Fair. Artsy's interactive guide to the fair will launch on August 31 on Artsy.net and the Artsy app for iPhone & iPad.

Jewellery Partner

Messika – French jewelry house, founded by Valerie Messika in 2005. Valérie was predestined to work with diamonds, as her father, André Messika was known as one of the best specialists in exceptional gems. Valérie Messika inherited this passion. She decided to devote herself to the diamond – while following her own path, because she had no affinity with the trade. Instinctively, every diamond inspired a design or an idea in her. The thrill lay in the setting she imagined when seeing the stone. So she turned to design. Her first piece of jewelry was a necklace consisting of a diamond on a fishing line. In 2005, Valérie Messika created her eponymous brand with a close-knit guard, transforming diamonds into jewelry that has the knack of making your heart stop and your eyes sparkle.
