

NEW YEAR'S PARTY: COSMOSCOW X PIANISSIMO TOOK PLACE AT THE VESPER TVERSKAYA PENTHOUSE

On December 11, with the support of SberFirst, Vesper, THE UGLY DUCK (TUD), Beluga and Tête de Cheval brands, Unika, and BAIKAL, the New Year's Party: Cosmoscow x Pianissimo took place at the penthouse of the Vesper Tverskaya clubhouse, offering panoramic views of Moscow. The highlight of the evening was the brilliant performance of pianist Philipp Rudenko, performing as part of the Pianissimo music festival.

The Cosmoscow International Contemporary Art Fair and the Cosmoscow Foundation held their annual New Year's event, bringing together friends, guests, and clients of the institution to celebrate the end of the year. Guests of the event included Margarita Pushkina, Zelfira Tregulova, Polina Bondareva, Ksenia Kitaeva, Denis Khimilyayne, Evgeny Tikhonovich, Darina Alekseeva, Anastasia Kamenskaya, Alexander Popov, Anna Andronova, Nadezhda and Georgy Ananyev, Natalia Luchaninova, Ekaterina Romanova, and others.

The Pianissimo Festival, known for its experimental approach, where classical music meets painting, architecture, and natural landscapes, specially prepared a musical program of three world classics for the event. Guests enjoyed César Franck's "Prelude, Aria, and Finale," Richard Wagner's "Isolde's Death," and Sergei Rachmaninoff's "Oriental Sketch." The repertoire was performed by Philipp Rudenko, a student at the Moscow Conservatory, a scholarship recipient, and a participant in concert programs.

Real fir trees served as decoration for the event, creating a truly forest-like atmosphere. They filled the space with the scent of pine, instantly immersing guests in a New Year's mood. The penthouse also featured a lounge area provided by SberFirst, and guests were treated to limited-edition art pieces from THE UGLY DUCK (TUD), harmoniously blending art and design.
