THE NEW GRAPHIC ARTS
FAIR OBERTON BY COSMOSCOW OPENED AT
MOSCOW'S TON-CENTER

Oberton Preview was supported by MR, Yandex Pay, The Act, Konstantin Chaykin, Yandex Afisha, Beluga, and edis. The event took place at the new TON-CENTER exhibition space (3/30 building 1, Komsomolskaya Square), a new multifunctional venue located in a historic building designed by architect Konstantin Ton in the 1840s.

Guests of the opening included: Margarita Pushkina, Marina Loshak, Alisa Prudnikova, Denis Khimilyaine, Sergey Limonov, Irina Korina, Gosha Rubchinskiy, Boris and Irina Zarkov, Valentina Davydik, Anastasia Kamenskaya, Sofia Rauf, Tatyana Stolyar, Anka Akhalaia, Sasha Maniovich, Igor Samolet, Pavel Pepperstein, Sonya Stereostyrski, Anna Naumova, Alexandra Lekomtseva, Ambartsum Kabanyan, Ekaterina Nepomnyashchaya, Sergey Meshalkin, Natalia Dogadina, Anastasia Ryabtsova, and others.

The fair featured artworks presented by 29 galleries from Moscow, St. Petersburg, Nizhny Novgorod, Voronezh, and Vladivostok, three partner booths, a special New Year project by Pogodina Gallery, and a charity project by TEO by Cosmocow.

The evening's atmosphere was created by the Beluga bars, located in the central hall under the building's dome. Guests were treated to exquisite signature cocktails, specially prepared for the event by the bartenders. Each drink was a miniature work of art.

DJs Igor Samolet and Petya Guly-Rozenshteyn provided musical accompaniment. Their mix of electronic music, disco, and nostalgic hits created a mood perfectly suited to the event.

The online version of Oberton was launched on December 3rd on the TEO by Cosmoscw platform. It features works from over 25 galleries, some of which are participating online only. Collectors will be able to negotiate prices on the TEO platform, find works on request, and receive professional art consulting. The online fair will conclude through December 14th.

Tickets and accreditation applications are available at the fair's official website. Fair hours: December 5th, 12:00 PM to 10:00 PM; December 6th and 7th, 10:00 AM to 8:00 PM.
